CPRS Monitoring Report

Policy: 4.0
Title: Global – Purpose and Outcome
Report Type: Internal
Responsible: Stephanie Stephens
Monitoring Period: May 2021 – April 2022
Compliance:
Assessment Link:

Date Reported: Interpretations presented May 2021

Policy 4.0
The California Park & Recreation Society exists so that members are successful. These ENDs will be achieved in a manner that represents good value for the resources invested.

Compliance with this policy will be achieved when the following outcomes are realized (interpretation):
Policies nested within these ENDs are found to be in compliance.

Policy	Title	Compliance Reported
4.1	Member Dedication – Members are dedicated in strengthening community
4.2	Member Support – Members have the skills, knowledge, support and networks they need
4.3	Advocacy – Members make effective use of tools needed to position parks and recreation as a vital community service

CPRS Monitoring Report

Policy: 4.1
Title: Member Dedication
Report Type: Internal
Responsible: Stephanie Stephens
Monitoring Period: May 2021 – April 2022
Compliance:
Assessment Link:

Date Reported: Interpretations presented May 2021

Policy 4.1
Members are dedicated in strengthening community.

#	Interpretation	Goal(s)	Performance Indicators
1	Members demonstrate through their agencies' and individual actions, they are strengthening community both with their constituents and within CPRS	External: • Successful community engagement and testimonials supporting positive impacts through parks and recreation are collected and shared • Create and promote interactive platforms where members can share successful and ongoing engagement with their communities Internal: • Provide opportunities to engage members within the CPRS Community • Through interactions/participation with allied partners and associations, implement key initiatives that support member success

CPRS Monitoring Report

Policy: 4.2
Title: Global
Report Type: Internal
Responsible: Stephanie Stephens
Monitoring Period: May 2021 – April 2022
Compliance:
Assessment Link:

Date Reported: Interpretations presented May 2021

Policy 4.2
Members have the skills, knowledge, support and networks they need.

#	Interpretation	Goal(s)	Performance Indicators
1	SKILLS: Members have the skills they need to advance in the profession	Develop leadership skills: • Develop HQ specific leadership meetings for Region/District/Section leaders to better understand resources available to them through HQ CAP Tool Curation and Development: • Develop and implement the Impact Calculator; anticipated launch of March 2022 • Curate JEDI specific tools for member download and use Promote skill attainment: • CPRP/CPRE program promotion
2	KNOWLEDGE: Members view CPRS as their preferred source of professional development; Members rate CPRS	Training/Education: • Through Education specific listening tours, gather input and develop a comprehensive Education Plan that education and training programs as high quality and high value	includes education provided by HQ, Regions, Districts and Sections; plan goals to be implemented in FY 2022-23. Recognition: • Assist in recognizing outstanding member driven education programs

3	SUPPORT/NETWORKS: Members feel supported by HQ, State Board, and Region/District and Section leaders and connected with one another	Technology: • Provide tools to engage members in online conversations, information sharing and blended learning opportunities • Support Region, District and Sections in providing online programs and blended learning opportunities • Provide training on tools available to members and leaders through CPRS HQ (i.e. online communities, member directories and buyers guide, website resources) Support: • Assist with Past President Strike Team development and deployment Ownership Linkage: • Support BOD goals around Ownership Linkage

CPRS Monitoring Report

Policy: 4.3
Title: Global
Report Type: Internal
Responsible: Stephanie Stephens
Monitoring Period: May 2021 – April 2022
Compliance:
Assessment Link:

Date Reported: Interpretations presented May 2021

Policy 4.3
Members make effective use of tools needed to position parks and recreation as a vital community service.

	Interpretation	Goal(s)	Performance Indicators
2	Members promote the value of the park and recreation profession as a vital community service to their decision makers and their communities	External Messaging: • Promote PMLB Month, offering resources for members to implement/promote; ensure PMLB key messages reflect goals and strategies outlined in CAP • Recognize outstanding people, programs and services through annual Awards Program Internal: • Support the JEDI Council and tool curation/development/training • Develop training around using the Impact Calculator to 'tell the P&R Story' in communities • Continue legislative advocacy to promote and support the P&R profession through support to the A-Team	