

CALIFORNIA PARK & RECREATION SOCIETY DISTRICT 9

2023 Professional Program Scholarship Application

January, 2023

Dear Potential Scholarship Recipient,

The California Park and Recreation Society District 9 recognizes the financial challenges facing many of our agencies and members. To help meet this challenge, District 9 welcomes your interest in entering the competition for our 2023 Program Scholarship Award. One scholarship winner will be selected and will be awarded up to $500 for professional development opportunity(s), specific to the recreation field.

The criteria for the selection process include:

1. The applicant is a current CPRS District 9 member.
2. The applicant is located in the District 9 area. Please refer to Attachment A for District 9 geographical boundaries.
3. The professional development opportunity includes; trainings, workshops, conferences, specialty licenses, or certification programs.
4. Proof of one or more of the listed eligible criteria in #3 is required. (attach with the application)
5. You are not a current board member of CPRS District 9.

A panel will review and evaluate each application. The winner will be notified by April 2023.

Attached is the Professional Program Scholarship Application Packet. The completed packet (application form, proof of development opportunity) is due by Monday, March 6th at 5:00 p.m. *Optional: Letter of Recommendation, Resume. Scanned or emailed applications will be accepted. The application may be found in the District 9 Library section online at www.cprsmembers.org.

The recipient(s) of these scholarships will be invited to the 2023 District 9 Annual Awards and Installation Banquet. Date & Location TBD
