SEPTEMBER 6: Preparing for the Future

Track 1 – Geared towards Coordinators, Supervisors, & Managers

Building the Bench – Prepare your staff “sub in” if/when you are taken out of the game.

Track 2 – Geared towards Recreation Leaders & Specialists

Resume/Interview/Professionalism Tips –
How to stand out amongst your competition.

OCTOBER 4: Special Needs/Inclusion Programming

Explore different special needs that might be present in your communities, learn some basic behavior strategies, how to identify potential challenges, and how to create a plan with parents/guardians to ensure everyone has an enjoyable experience.

NOVEMBER 1: Supervisors' Roundtable

Join coordinators, supervisors, and managers from around the district as we share the good, the bad, and the unpredictable situations that our staff have faced and how they were handled.

DECEMBER 6: Special Event Planning and Evaluations

This session will offer information on the latest trends, best practices, and challenges in the world of special events and how to evaluate events and programs for the future. Come prepared to share your personal experiences with special event planning!

JANUARY 10: Budget Basics 102

Track 1 – Geared towards part-time staff and entry level coordinators, this session will introduce basic budget terms and concepts.

Track 2 – For more experienced professionals, this session will dive deeper into advanced budgeting topics.
