PURPOSE OF SCHOLARSHIP:

To assist parks and recreation professionals looking to develop and increase their knowledge in the field, by providing them the opportunity to attend the 2022 CPRS Conference.

DESCRIPTION OF SCHOLARSHIP:

Scholarship will consist of a full 2022 CPRS Conference registration in Sacramento. One scholarship will be awarded to a current CPRS District 13 member. The District 13 Board of Directors will review all applications and determine eligible awardee based on financial need and merit.

REQUIREMENTS OF THE SCHOLARSHIP:

(Candidates must meet all of the following requirements.)

- Candidates must be employed within District 13 up to the mid-management (supervisory) level. District 13 member cities are located in the left sidebar of this document for your reference.
- The award is open only to professionals working directly in the field of Parks and Recreation (working a minimum of 20 hours per week).
- Applicant must be a current member of CPRS or a student working within District 13.
- Applicants must commit to attending 3 days of the conference, March 8-11, 2022.
- Provide a letter of recommendation from an immediate supervisor or director approving attendance/time off to attend the conference March 8-11, 2022 and verifying that the city has not budgeted and does not have the means to pay conference fees.

SELECTION OF SCHOLARSHIP RECIPIENTS AND PRESENTATION OF AWARDS:

Qualified applicants who meet all of the criteria and complete the application will have their application reviewed by the District 13 Board. The Board will select recipient to receive the scholarship. One scholarship will be awarded. Applications must be received by Friday, January 7, 2022 at 5:00 p.m.

CPRS Conference Scholarship recipient will also be announced at the annual CPRS District 13 Awards & Installation on Thursday, February 24, 2022.
